Carla Hüttermann

Carla is delicate and strong at the same time, with a lively, energetic sparkle in her eyes that captured us right away. She started out on "Schloss Einstein" and in 2021 shot the Grimme Prize-winning series "Safe" with Caroline Link. From September 2023 she plays the role of lady-in-waiting Pauline von Bellegarde in the second season of the Netflix series "The Empress". After finishing school in early 2023, Carla is now studying Italian and French alongside her acting. Theatre is her secret passion, and she catches a breath of stage air whenever she can. Alongside acting, she also loves playing the double bass.
